

Follow up....

What did you like about the Science Roadshow at Chanel College yesterday?

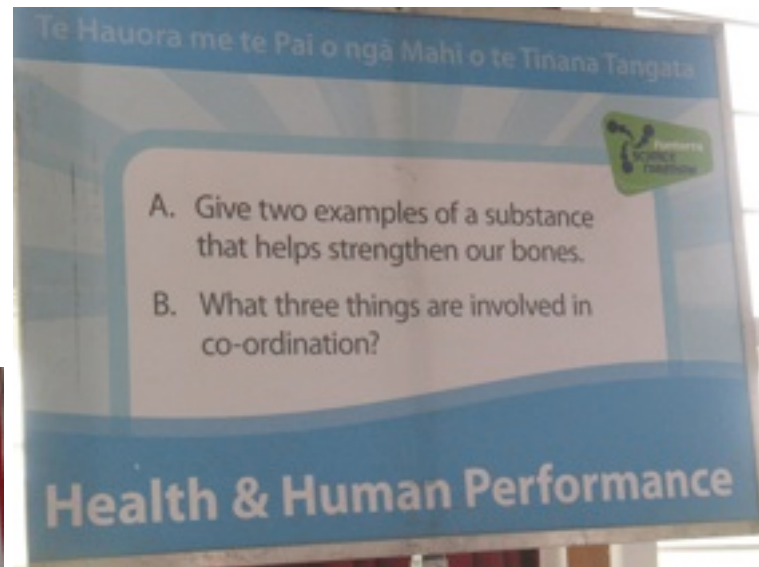

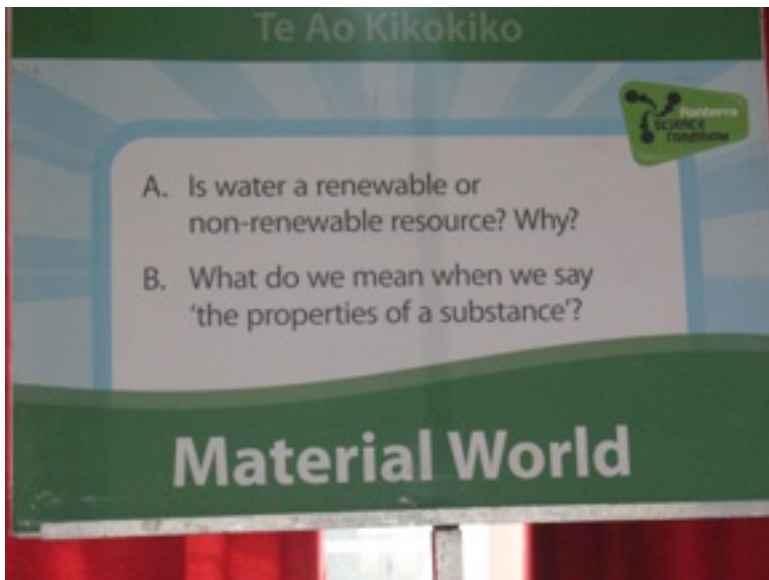

*

*

*

What is one thing you learned that you didn't know before you went?

Try and answer these questions with someone at home. Write your answers on a piece of paper and bring into school.....

There is another page following...

Ngā Hangarau

- A. Other than the decimal numbering system, what system is commonly used in today's technology?
- B. What is technology?

Technology

Te Hiko

- A. What is acceleration?
- B. When something is changing speed or direction, are the forces acting on it balanced or unbalanced?

Motion

Te Hiko

- A. If conductors allow electricity to flow, then what do insulators do?
- B. We can't see electricity, so how do we know it is a form of energy?

Electricity